The image displays the HistoryLines website interface across three devices: a laptop, a tablet, and a smartphone. The central laptop screen shows a detailed life sketch for Thomas Henry Chegwiddden (1851-1927). The interface includes a central timeline from 1830 to 1950, with a red bar representing the user's life. Above the timeline, various historical events are listed, such as 'Slavery abolished in UK', 'Immigration to the United States', 'National Insurance Act', 'Improved Transatlantic Mail', 'Tane Zones', 'Ford Motors', 'Living in Los Angeles', 'Opium Wars', 'India under Crown rule', 'Professional Football', 'Penicillin', 'Living in Redburn', 'Avondale Mine Disaster', 'Women's Suffrage', 'Herbert Hoover', 'Titanic Sinks', 'Empire State Building', 'Heinz Ketchup', 'Plessy v. Ferguson', 'Great Depression', 'Typewriter', 'Utah Statehood', 'Immigration to the United States', 'Spanish American War', 'New Deal', 'Telephone', 'Living in Ophir', 'Dust Bowl', 'Spanish Flu', 'Living in Ophir', '19th Amendment', 'Smoke Abatement Movement', and 'Knott's Berry Farm'. A map on the right shows the user's location in PORT SAURICA. Below the timeline, a list of family members is shown, including 'Victor Chegwiddden', 'Marie Holmberg Chegwiddden', 'Maud May Chegwiddden', 'Gus North of Chegwiddden', 'Greta Joseph Chegwiddden', 'Ananka Bernice Chegwiddden', 'Thomas Henry Chegwiddden', and 'Arlid Rosemary Chegwiddden'. A text box at the bottom left provides biographical information: 'Thomas born, 1851. Thomas was born on 24 February 1851, in Stoke Climsland, Cornwall, England, His mother was Margaret Clemes or Clements and was 24 years old when Thomas was born. His father was Thomas Chegwiddden and was 36 years old at the time. Thomas was the first of five children.' The smartphone and tablet screens show a condensed version of this information, including a photo of a landscape and a brief biography.
